ILANI JOEL

Congratulations to Ilani Joel for being selected as the Highlands April COLT of the Month! If the monthly feature featured a person next to the name "COLT OF THE MONTH," Ilani would undoubtedly be the one pictured. Her personality shines through, while her strong character is evident in everything she does. She approaches her responsibilities with care, always striving to do her very best. Beyond the classroom, Ilani is also actively involved in the Fashion Club, contributing her creativity and talent to designing beautiful outfits for the school play. We are so proud of our Highlands community, and we are so proud of you on our behalf. Highlands is blessed to have you on our team.

AZEIDA CABATAN

We are so proud to present Azeida as Hui Ha'aheo's Colt of the Month! Azeida is an admirable student, who consistently demonstrates our COLTS PRIDE here at Highlands. Azeida is a student truly deserving of this award for the positive impact she makes every day. She consistently shows respect to both her peers and teachers, creating a supportive and welcoming environment in the classroom. She works hard to achieve strong grades and takes pride in doing her best. Beyond academics, she is a dedicated member of our Highlands community, generously giving her time through service and volunteering. Her kindness is evident in her actions, always looking for ways to help others. With clear goals and a quiet confidence, she leads by example and inspires those around her.

JACE ALAKAI

Jace is a kind, positive and supportive student. He's always stepping up to assist a teacher with a task or will patiently guide another peer through any challenge, his spirit of helpfulness is constant and sincere. He navigates the school day with a natural social ease, greeting others with a friendly smile that makes him incredibly approachable. Beyond his warmth, Jace demonstrates an impressive level of resilience; when faced with academic or personal hurdles, he doesn't back down, choosing instead to persevere with a "can-do" attitude. Perhaps most importantly, his deep sense of empathy and thoughtfulness allows him to connect with others on a meaningful level, ensuring that those around him feel seen and supported.

REAGAN FONTANILLA

Reagan Fontanilla is the embodiment of Koa Kau Lio's April Colt of the Month! Throughout the year, Reagan has proven himself to be exceptionally hardworking, thoughtful, and responsible, successfully balancing a rigorous academic workload with his numerous extracurricular commitments such as student council and a dedicated trumpet player in band. When answering questions in class or leading discussions, he has proven himself to be a natural born leader. He also does an exceptional job reading the Colts Morning Bulletin, helping everyone understand the latest news at our school! He is highly regarded by both teachers and peers for his respectful, polite, and well-mannered nature, often using his unique sense of humor to keep his group members on track and engaged. When someone is in need, Reagan is one of the first to show up and lend a hand. These qualities showcase his selflessness and willingness to radiate his positive energy onto others.
